CAMP 2016

FAQ's

Where is Camp? Crystal Springs Bible Camp, Medina, ND. July 25-29, 2016.

Why should I go to Camp? It is a fun place to experience Jesus and make new friends.

What will we be doing this year? Some of the old favorites are back - paintball, group games, mud pit and water sports.

If I want to be an adult staff person, what must I do? Please see enclosed camp counselor application for requirements. Camp counselor forms must be postmarked by Monday, June 27.

If I am a staff person, does my son or daughter get a reduced rate? Yes. We are allowing parents serving as staff a rate of $140 for every student in your immediate family—sons, daughters, and step kids if preregistered.

Who is speaking? Ron Jackson. Ron has served as a youth pastor, children's pastor and a pastor to college and young adult students. He is currently the Dean of Campus Life at MidAmerica Nazarene University in Olathe, KS. Ron has been married for 33 years and has two daughters.

What ages is camp for? Camp is for students who are heading into 6th grade to students just graduated as of 2016.

Do you have to attend a Nazarene Church to go to camp? No. Any student may come.

Why do I have to pre-register? This will save you money! Pre-registration helps us in planning meals, activities and housing. The early bird price is $195.00 if postmarked by Monday, June 27. All registrations must be postmarked by Wednesday, July 13. We are not able to accept registrations after this date.

I am a parent. Why should I trust you with my student? It is our goal to provide a safe environment for your teenager to experience Jesus Christ. We know that the camp experience will provide an opportunity for your teen to build relationships that will benefit them as they grow.
